Our Response to Editor’s comments

Comments:
Thanks for your careful revisions. As one final remark, I would like to make you aware of one recent paper, which might be useful to refer to:

However, I leave the decision on this to you.

RESPONSE: We thank the Editor for bringing the useful reference to our attention. We have now cited the recommended reference in our manuscript.

Line 444: “The connectivity between surface and subsurface waters and the associated hydrologic and ecological functions are spatially variable and temporally dynamic (Blume and van Meerveld, 2015).”
