Interactive comment on “Technical note: Pitfalls in using log-transformed flows within the KGE criterion” by Léonard Santos et al.

J Ding

johnding_toronto@yahoo.com

Received and published: 18 June 2018

Addendum

Unbeknown to me until now, Figure 9 hints at a new data transformation targeting hydrographs. This is called the NISR, the negative inverse square-root transformation of the flow $Q$: $-\frac{1}{\sqrt{Q}}$.